

University of Montana

ScholarWorks at University of Montana

---

University of Montana News Releases, 1928,
1956-present

University Relations

---

5-8-1976

Nockleby, Pomeroy receive UM alumni awards

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases>

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

---

Recommended Citation

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations, "Nockleby, Pomeroy receive UM alumni awards" (1976). University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present. 27230.
<https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/27230>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.

IMMEDIATELY

sale/rb
5-8-76
state + cs +

NOCKLEBY, POMEROY RECEIVE UM ALUMNI AWARDS

MISSOULA--

John T. Nockleby, Kalispell, and Patricia Ann Pomeroy, Polson, seniors at the University of Montana in Missoula, were named winners of the UM Alumni Association's Award of Excellence Saturday, May 8, at the association's annual meeting in Missoula.

Henry "Dutch" Dahmer, Great Falls, the 1975-76 UM Alumni Association president, presented the award to each of the UM students at the alumni luncheon Saturday at the Elks Club. Dahmer also was succeeded as president of the UM Alumni Association by Ted Delaney, Missoula, at Saturday's luncheon.

Nockleby, who was president of the Associated Students of UM (ASUM) in 1975-76, and Pomeroy, who is serving as 1976-77 ASUM vice president, each received a $250 award from the UM Alumni Association for excelling beyond their academic pursuits and for achievements and service judged to be a credit to the UM student body, the University and the state. Both are 22.

Prior to his one-year stint as ASUM president, Nockleby, a senior in economics, history and philosophy at UM, served in 1974-75 as ASUM business manager.

Besides being ASUM vice president, Pomeroy, a senior in pharmacy at UM, is serving as chairman of the ASUM Legislative Committee. She attended Montana State University, Bozeman, for three years before transferring to the UM School of Pharmacy in the fall of 1974. After coming to UM, she was appointed to the ASUM Legislative Committee.

Nockleby, a June 1972 graduate of Flathead High School, Kalispell, is son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Nockleby, 403 Addison Square, Kalispell. Pomeroy, a May 1971 graduate of Polson High School, is daughter of Mrs. Grace H. Pomeroy, Polson.

In addition to Delaney, other UM alumni who were installed to various UM Alumni Association posts at Saturday's luncheon include Bradley B. Parrish, Lewistown, who recently was elected vice president of the alumni group, and Gail Paige Good, Fort Benton, who has been elected three-year delegate-at-large to the UM Alumni Association.

Delaney received his bachelor of arts degree in journalism at UM in 1947 and Parrish was awarded a bachelor of arts degree in history and political science in 1963 and the juris doctor's degree in 1967 at UM. Good received a bachelor of arts degree in education at the University in 1962.

Delaney is president of Delaney's Bureau of Printing in Missoula and Parrish is an attorney in Lewistown. Good is a member of the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church and the board of directors of Signal Point Golf Course and she is the Associate Conductress of the Order of the Eastern Star in Fort Benton.

Those who attend the annual UM Alumni Association meetings include the association's Board of Directors; trustees of the UM Alumni Development Fund, and members of the UM Alumni Association's House of Delegates. The House of Delegates includes three delegates at large and two delegates from each of the 13 UM Alumni Association districts within Montana.